Public Release

The Brown County Sheriff's Office has taken multiple reports of thefts from vehicles in the past few days. So far, these thefts have mainly occurred around the Hanska area. Watonwan County Sheriff's Office as well as Madelia Police Department has also had similar cases in the preceding days.

Brown County Sheriff's office urges its residents to lock up their homes, garages, and vehicles as these have been the prime targets for these individuals.

If you have been a victim of these types of thefts or have any suspicious activity to report please contact Brown County Sheriff's Office at (507) 233-6700.
